WILL BOX COX INVESTIGATE HIMSELF

[Cleveland Press]

Now that he is a candidate for governor, Warren G. Harding is vociferously demanding that the canal grafters be investigated, and, if guilty, prosecuted and punished.

When Mr. Harding was lieutenant governor of Ohio it was common belief if not common knowledge that there was official corruption in Ham-Hton county.

At that time Lieut, Goy, Harding was presiding officer of the Ohio senate, high in the councils of the Republican party and in position to demand and enforce a legislative investigation of graft in Hamilton county-graft of such gigantic proportions that all this canal graft was petit larceny compar-

The truth, is, bowever, that the Republican machinery, including some of the Republican courts, threw every obstacle in the way of a searching investigation.

In 1906 the Republican house refus ed to join with the Democratic senate in such an investigation. And when investigation its committee was Centerburg. The Rev. J. W. The average man is apt to judge the future by the past. In all the years of Republican machine rule official graft was kept covered up. Gov. Harmon took the lid off.

What assurance have the people of Ohio that Warren G. Harding, Senafor Dick and Boss Cox will investigate their own party if Harding is elected governor?

Will Boss Cox investigate himself?
